Unit 2, 25 Hampton Street, Hawthorn

MODERN RENOVATED UNIT IN GREAT LOCATION

This beautifully renovated unit in the suburb of Hawthorn is set on a quiet street in a quiet group of units and is close to the city, Mitcham Shopping Centre, public transport and fantastic schools.

As you step through the front door into the spacious lounge you instantly feel at home. The polished timber floors give the room a real warm feeling which is certainly helped along by the gas heating. There is professionally crafted cabinetry running the length of the room to the entrance of the kitchen and dining area.

The modern sleek kitchen offers an abundance of storage for any cooking enthusiast and is complimented by quality stainless steel appliances which include dishwasher and gas cook top and oven.

The polished wood flooring continues through out the kitchen/dining area and through the hall which leads to two bedrooms and the bathroom.

The bathroom is fantastic with large modern tiling, mirrored cabinet and large bath with overhead shower.

The two bedrooms off the hall are good sized and both continue with the polished wood flooring and feature built in robes. The possible third bedroom/study/storage can be accessed by the second bedroom and garage. This room also features built in robes and floor to ceiling stainless steel and glass bi-fold doors that open on to the rear courtyard.

Other features of the home include separate lockable laundry, single car garaging with automatic roller door and solar panels to help with the ever increasing electricity bills.
