An impressive home with a simple, easy living design and an understated elegance that will tick all your boxes. The thought, careful planning and quality fixtures and fittings that have been lavished on this home by the discerning owners is clearly evident throughout. This is a more than comfortable residence suitable for a larger family or those that like to accommodate guests.

There's room for everyone with four good sized bedrooms, a substantial open plan family room combined with a top-class modern kitchen, an enormous dining area for those larger family gatherings, a restful formal lounge and plenty of covered alfresco entertaining area at the rear.

Parents can easily observe children and pets playing in the fully enclosed backyard through large windows and sliding doors located at the rear of the light-filled family room. The kitchen, with plenty of preparation space, a lengthy island bench and stainless steel appliances (including a Bosch dishwasher) is positioned near to the family and dining areas and forms the hub of the home.

Honey toned solid timber floorboards with a subtle satin finish are a feature of the entrance, hallway and master bedroom, while easy-care timber-look floating flooring is located in the other bedrooms. Floor-to-ceiling tiles, a seamless shower screen and an above bench sink combine to create effortless style in the home's newly renovated en-suite. Soft ambient downlights, a graceful pendant light-fitting and decorative cornice add to the
